THURSDAY, JANUARY 20. 1743.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from France.

Rome, Jan. 5.

E never remember so much Stirr there is at present about the Disposal of the Vacant Seats, of which there are no less than Eighteen; nor is it at all certain when the Holiness will dispose of them. Not long ago his Holiness communicated to the Cardinal-Bishops a Memorial he drew up at Castel Gandolfo, in relation to the suppressing of the many Feasts which all the Faithful are obliged to observe. Cardinal Cibo, however, has drawn up on the other Side of the Question, in which he gives the Reasons, why he believes such a Procedure would be detrimental to the Peace of the Church. Other Cardinals and Bishops espouse the same Opinion, but the Majority are in another Way of Thinking. Joiners receives daily fresh Applications from the others on the other Side of the Mountains, insisting, that Regulation may be made. On Monday last Cardinal Belluga presented to him five Representations on Subject, from as many of the most knowing Bishops in Spain. A Congregation will be speedily held, which this knotty Affair will be thoroughly sifted, some Resolution taken. As to the Pope's Sentiments, they are already known. He is for granting this to where-ever Bishops see it to be convenient; and leave the rest as free in the Observance of their old Rites. It is reported that a Scheme is on the Point of execution, in order to put our Finances on a good basis, Jan. 1. Her Majesty advances very happily in Pregnancy. The four Galley ships that were lately lying in the Adriatic, are again entered into Port here, and disarmed. No less than seven Batteries are erected along the Shore, from the Bridge of St. Magdalene to Granatello, each of which is to be furnished with Pieces of heavy Cannon, so pointed as to hinder any Ship from entering into the Port. We are in raising Batteries also at the Bridge of Posillipo, Castellamare, the other Works and Fortifications of the City are carried on with incredible Diligence, and advance apace, so that we quickly expect this Place to be in Condition of Defence against any Power that may attack it. But in the mean time, the Court is evidently in violent Apprehensions, and the Inhabitants increase uneasiness at the Appearance of War, while so burdened with Taxes.

Genoa, Jan. 9. The new Levies go on as well as be wished; and the Generals here take care that Arms should be ready for the new-raised Troops as fast as they arrive. Prince Lobkowitz having a Garrison into Prague, and having recruited the Forces under his Command, advances with about 20,000 men towards the Upper Palatinate and Bavaria, in order to join Count Khevenhuler; while that General extends Quarters on the other Side of Bavaria, in proportion to the French draw off towards Donawert. The Baron Falb, Minister at this Court from the Elector of Bavaria, is very ill. His principal Business here was to procure the Mediation of his Court and of the Empire, in order to settle the Terms of Peace between her Majesties and the Elector of Bavaria. M. Demrade will very likely go to the Court of Mentz, and some other German Courts, in order to execute a Commission of Immediate Justice, while Mr. Villiers, the British Minister, visits the others with the same Intention. Her Majesty advances very happily in her Pregnancy.

Dolosa, Jan. 21. All our Letters from the Low Countries agree, That the Hanoverian Troops in the Pay of Great Britain began their March this Day, and are to cross the Meuse at Ruremonde, or thereabouts. The French have also quitted their Quarters, in order to occupy those the Hanoverians have left, and are to continue their March in the same Route with all imaginable expedition. We have been lately amused here with a Story concerning a Declaration of his Prussian Majesty, which we since find was concerted with the Court of Great Britain, and was intended only to draw off the Emperor from the French Interest, and to prevent Germany being any longer the Seat of War. All our Letters from Bavaria intimate, that the French Marshals Anglino and Maillebois are preparing for a March, which will be a rival that of the Marshal Belleisle.

Paris, Jan. 23. Tho' it is every Day more and more evident that Cardinal Tencin will succeed Cardinal Fleury in the King's Confidence, yet it is most certain, that he will as little like to acquire the Esteem of the People as ever. They look upon him as the Author of all the bold, enterprising Councils which have taken Place of late, and which has brought this Kingdom into such Distraction and Distress. Orders have been sent from the War-Office to the Intendants of the several Provinces, directing them to cause their respective Draughts of Militia to march immediately. A circular Letter has been also sent to the Commandants of the several Battalions of old Militia, to send from each of their Corps a Detachment of 50 Men, 4 Captains, 4 Sergeants, 2 Corporals, and 2 Ansafades, to conduct the Militia of the last Augmentation by small Bodies of 3 or 400 Men, to meet the Army coming out of Bavaria. The Court is under a Necessity of taking this Precaution, that the Militia may join those Troops in good Order, and without running any Risk of Mutinies. Last Week the new Militia was draughted out of the Town of Versailles, and this with unusual Severity, for the Children of Foreigners settled there, of the Swiss Guards, nay of the King's Gardeners, were obliged to draw Lots, in order to determine the 50 that were to be taken out of this Place. The whole Number of the young People who drew might be about 4000.

Hague, Jan. 25. The Deputies sent by the States to the City of Dordt, returned on the 15th, but the Event of their Deputation has not yet been made publick, tho' it is pretty certain, from the Measures that have been since taken, that they met with all the Success they could desire. It is now said, that the Allies will shortly assemble a very considerable Army in the Neighbourhood of Metz. The Hanoverians and Hessians are actually marching.

Extract from the Paris Almanac. Jan. 25.
M. D'Argenson went on Thursday last to the Royal Hospital of Invalids, where, under a Salvo of Artillery, he was received as Minister of War. After hearing Mass, he held a Council, and then dined with the Governor, M. Courneuve.

We continue to seize here, every Day, some or other of the Gang of Street-Robbers, and Assassins, that disturb the Peace of this City in the Night, who are committed to the Prisons of the Chatelet, till they can take their Trials.

We learn from Dunkirk, that Orders have been lately issued there, for taking a strict Account of the Inhabitants from 18 Years old to 40, in order to oblige them to take Arms, and enter the Service, in case of a Siege.

Last Night his Eminence, Cardinal Fleury, who had been much better for some Days, relaps'd, and is now look'd upon as past all hopes.

To the DAILY GAZETTEER.

On Belleisle's Retreat from Prague.

THE great Negotiator beheld,
Erst full of Galconade and Brag,
Pouring, like Sheep as from a Fold,
With all his Thousands, out of Prague!

But ah! where wilt thou fly, Belleisle?
Bavaria's Confines are too far,
Whilst all the Troops at Egmont feel Sharp Hunger, sad Effects of War!
You'd not attempt to join Count Saxe,
That Project ill relieves,
Your new Turenne his Brags relax,
And gallant Seckendorff deceives.
Besides, brave Kervenbullen's there,
Who, like a Tyger, watches Broglie;
He'll surely catch you in his Snare,
And beat you both into an Oleo.
Fierce, the Waradins and Pandours
Will intercept thee in the Way;
These, Queen of Hungary's Defenders,
Watchful lurk to seize their Prey.
Lo! they attack, sometimes, thy Van,
Sometimes surprize thee in the Rear;
Molest thee wheresoe'er they can,
But fye, O Queen! this is not fair.
Is this a Christian Way to war
With Pandour, and with Waradin,
Wild Cross too, and fierce Hussar,
Of Aspect terrible and Mien?
Can you so cruel be t'oppose
Thee to the gentle Gens of France?
Who've often swore they're not your Foes,
And came to Prague but for a Dance.
What tho' Bavaria's Friends they be,
They break not the Pragmatic Sanction;
As his Allies, not Foes to thee,
They come but to perform that Function.
It whilst one grapple with a Thief,
Another gives you, soule, a Blow;
'Tis only for his Friend's Relief,
And not by any Means your Foe:
If you in Doubt this Matter call,
And think my Reas'ning is not good;
Belleisle's old Friend, the Cardinal,
Will say in France, 'tis a la mode.
Those tatter'd Bands, howe'er consist
Of mighty Men, to be impartial,
And he who marches in the midst,
Is no less Man, than Monsieur Marshal.
The He! who unabash'd with Fears,
Told D'Asfelt, wary Chief, he'd crush all,
It, at the Head of Grenadiers,
He might attack Eugene at Bruchall.
The He! who form'd the desp'rte Band,
By whom was to be overthrown
In midst of Peace, at his Command,
The Walls of Luxemborough Town.
The mighty He! who'd proudly maul,
And keep all Germany in awe,
Who'd dictate on Vienna's Wall
To Austria and Hungaria Law.
Halt, halt, bold gasconading Chief!
You from your mighty Purpose stray;
Whilst thus you run, as 'twere for Life,
You to Vienna mis the Way.
Whilst head-long traversing the Waste,
To your poor Troops you are unkindmost,
You seem to march so much in haste,
As tho' the De'il might take the hindmost.
Before the Foe behold they fall,
Surrend'ring even by the Hundred,
Baggage and Bag, strong Box and all,
Which thou from Prague hast meanly plunder'd.
That same strong Box, so full of Bills,
All erst the Right of Burgomasters;
By Rapine since became Belleisle's,
And now th' Hussars, — What strange Disasters?
The Fox, a kind of Frenchman, thus Purloin'd, and almost overtaken,
Lets, wisely, drop his purloin'd Goose,
And scours away to save his Bacon.

Dr. BATEMAN's Original and ONLY TRUE Wholesale and Retail Warehouse at the Printing-Office, facing the South Door of Bow-Church, the Lower End of the Church-Yard, from Cheapside, LONDON.

THE Daily Success which has constantly attended the Taking Dr. BATEMAN's PECTORAL DROPS, in the several Distempers of Colds, Coughs, Pains in the Breast, Limbs, and Joints; has gain'd them so universal a Character, that few Families care to be without them in their Houses. — Besides the Distempers above-mentioned, there is no one Medicine, since the Discovery of the Art of Physick, that will give a Speedier Relief and Ease in all Rheumatic Pains, Gout, Stone, Gravel, Cholick, Fluxes, &c. Innumerable Instances might be given of the Happy Effects thereof, but we choose to refer to a Book, call'd, of Short Treatise of the Virtues of Dr. BATEMAN's PECTORAL DROPS, given gratis, at the Warehouse above-said; where all Shop-keepers, &c. in any City, Town, or Village, where these Drops are not already Sold, may be supplied, with good Allowance to sell again, by Directing or Sending to the PATENTER.

BENJAMIN OKELL,
WM. and CLER DICEY.

The Surprising Encouragement, which by constant Success, these most Valuable Drops have, for upwards of Twenty Years, met with, not only in Great Britain and Ireland, but in all Parts of the West-Indies, and other Foreign Countries; has lately induced several mean and mercenary Pretenders to Counterfeit them, and by imitating our Seal, Bill of Directions, and Show-Boards, with our Method of Advertising, as near as they can or dare to do, without making them'the same; thereby impose their dangerous Compositions upon the unwary and credulous Shop-keepers both in Town and Country, for the True and Genuine Sort.

The PATENTER and Company therefore, in Gratitude for the universal good Reception they have so long met with, and for the Safety of those who for the future may be desirous of using the same, think themselves absolutely obliged to give this necessary Caution;

Which they earnestly request may be observed,

THAT the Bottle they Buy is not only Sealed with the Boar's Head, but has also these Words round it, BY THE KING'S PATENT, as in the Margin; and also that the Names of the PATENTER, Benj. Okeill, William and Cler Dicey, be in the Bill of Directions given with each Bottle; without which you may be assur'd it is a notorious Counterfeit, and may be of the most dangerous Consequence.

N. B. That these Dros are also Sold Wholesale (as well as Wholesale) at the Warehouse aforesaid, at One Shilling the Bottle, containing three Doses.

This Day is Published,
Price One Shilling
The SECOND EDITION.

tory are examined, and set in a true Light.

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weakness of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Physicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure than Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses, whether confin'd by too severe purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Strains, Pollutio fui, or any other Cause whatever; or that they are dangerous in their Consequence, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain, since they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, insomuch the whole Nervous System often bring on Hectick Heats, a Tabes Dorso, or Confinement of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Confinement, which frequently terminate in Death itself.

All such, therefore, who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old or Stubborn Gleets, Seminal Effusions, Irregular Emissions, excessive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weaknesses of the Kidneys, Uicters, or Bladder, the Disease Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain, safe, & speedy
Cure, which they most assuredly may, by this only a small Quantity of the transcendent BALSAMICK RESTRICTIVE
ELECTUARY, now published for a general sale, after having for many Years been experience'd never to fail perfectly curing the most Stubborn Gleets known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as also other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels, &c. Urinary Passages, which almost instantly cures, brings to rights and restoring all those Parts and Passages to the natural Tone and pristine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doses of it only.

This transcendent BALSAMICK RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY is neither disagreeable to taste, nor occasions the least Disorder, but is a wonderful Restorative in all Weaknesses and Disorders of Confinement of any Kind, and particularly strengthens Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels to an imminent Degree, insomuch that in any Debility of them, one Dose of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Persons fatigued with Gleets or Seminal Weaknesses of any Sort, or Weaknesses of the Urinary Vessels, who take it, will in three Days time find it so very effectual, that they will be most agreeably surprised at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accomplish such a speedy and perfect Cure of such difficult Maladies, as Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses are, as this Great Remedy truly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been tried in vain; too much cannot be said in its favor.
All who ever took it for any of the above-mention'd Purposes have readily declared.

The Price is but 6 s. a Pot, altho' for its absolute Effect, one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish a Cure, worth ten times as much, and by the Author's special Appointment, is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up, with a Bill of Instructions, which whomsoever carefully reads will perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakness he is addic'd to succeeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malady
the Foul Disease is intirely eradicated or not.

Note. Ask only for a 6 s. Pot of Balsamic Electuary.
